

Discussion Questions

Week 4

1. Re-read 1 Corinthians 13:4-7. Go around the group and each of you share something you are good at, and how doing that "thing" with love is better than doing it without love.
2. Using 1 Corinthians 13:4-7 as a guide, discuss the attributes of selfless love. Come up with examples of what each might look like in day-to-day life.
3. Let's get personal, from the perspective of someone who is close to you, what is one attribute they think you should work on to have a better relationship?
4. From the perspective of someone who is close to you, what is one attribute they think you are good at that betters your relationship?